

What is the purpose of a FamilySearch Centre?

We inspire people everywhere
to connect with their family
-across generations.

The services provided in centres are free
You'll enjoy:

Personalized help

Center guests can receive personal help from volunteers in one of more than 5,400 centers worldwide.

Access to technology

Centers offer complimentary access to computers, internet, and subscription family history websites. Available resources vary by location.

Access to exclusive records

Visitors to FamilySearch centers get special access to images of historical records that are only available in centers.

Why do we offer this to the world?

"In all of us there is a hunger, marrow deep, to know our heritage—to know who we are and where we came from"

Alex Haley

author of "Roots"

Connections

Feelings of family connection can help us overcome the ups and downs of life. The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints funds FamilySearch to help people draw strength from their family relationships—past, present, and future.

Why do we offer this to
the world?

Family history can be a source of inspiration,
joy, healing, clarity,
empathy and peace.
